

Students For Liberty

Journal of Liberty and Society

– CALL FOR PAPERS –

Prometheus Institute Awards:

1 Top Paper $500

2 Honorable Mentions $100 Each

The Journal of Liberty and Society is an academic publication edited by Students For Liberty, a U.S.-based nonprofit organization inspired both by young minds and prominent scholars devoted to the study and defense of the tradition of classical liberalism. The purpose of the Journal of Liberty and Society is to provide for a space where these ideas can be discussed and improved. It also wants to be an opportunity for students to enhance their knowledge of a vast range of topics connected to free markets and individual freedom. The Prometheus Institute Prizes honor the top submissions with both cash awards and an invitation to join the Prometheus Institute staff as a contributing author for the Fall of 2011. Learn more at www.ThePrometheusInstitute.org.

This year, the Journal of Liberty and Society has expanded to include a Faculty Committee composed of many of the leading scholars of contemporary classical liberalism and libertarianism. Members of the Faculty Committee include:

- Dr. Michele Boldrin, Washington University in St. Louis (United States)
- Dr. Raimondo Cubeddu, University of Pisa (Italy)
- Dr. Valerio Filoso, University of Naples (Italy)
- Dr. Bill Glod, Institute for Humane Studies (United States)
- Dr. Bradley K. Hobbs, Florida Gulf Coast University (United States)
- Dr. Lorenzo Infantino, Luiss University (Italy)
- Dr. Carlo Lottieri, University of Siena (Italy)
- Dr. Antonio Masala, IMT, Institute for Advanced Studies Lucca (Italy)
- Dr. Jeffrey Miron, Harvard University (United States)
- Dr. Pietro Navarra, University of Messina & London School of Economics (United Kingdom)
- Dr. Aeon J. Skoble, Bridgewater State University (United States)
- Dr. Jesús Huerta de Soto, Rey Juane Carlos University (Spain)

All papers will be peer-reviewed by current students or recent graduates. The Faculty Committee will also review papers and provide feedback for authors to improve their work both before publication and to develop the author's thoughts even if rejected. Through the contributions of our authors, we aim to offer the best intellectual tools to students in order to create a new generation of scholars committed to the cause of liberty.

Submission Guidelines (also available at www.studentsforliberty.org/college/journal/):

- All papers should be submitted via email to journal@studentsforliberty.org as an attachment in Microsoft Word format.
- Any enrolled undergraduate student may submit a paper.
- All papers must be approved by a professor before submitted.
- The deadline for submission is February 19th, 2010. Early submissions are encouraged.
- Submissions should be at most 20 pages (double spaced) in length.
- Papers must be in Microsoft Word format, size 12 times new roman font.
- Papers should follow MLA formatting and include an abstract.
- Papers in any academic discipline may be submitted. The only limitation on subjects is that paper must be related to liberty or an issue that concerns liberty.
- Please include information on yourself and the professor who has approved your paper on a separate title page. This should include name, email, phone number, mailing address, college, major/department and year of expected graduation (student only). Do not include author information on the individual pages of the submitted paper so that they may be blind reviewed.
